

Eastside Genealogical Society

Eastside Genealogical Society presents: Organizing and Safely Storing Genealogy Media

Our speaker: Desa Omli
Thursday, September 10, 2020 at 7:00 pm
Via Zoom watch for the link

About our program: During her presentation, Desa will be sharing critical information and tips for preserving both hard copy and digital forms of genealogical information, photos, and other family memorabilia so it will be available for many generations to come. She will include organizational ideas, help for how to print photos that will last, as well as ideas for current records. The evening will be jam-packed with great information.

About our speaker: Desa Omli is a teacher by training, a fairly new member of EGS, but has been helping people organize, share and preserve their family stories, memories and photos for over 25 years.

For more information about EGS, visit our website at eastsidegenealogicalsociety.org