Eastside Genealogical Society presents: Researching Your Ancestor's House

Our speaker: Midori Okazaki
Thursday, January 14, 2021 at 7:00 pm PST
Via Zoom watch for the link

About our program: Every house has a story to tell. Knowing more about a house's history helps us understand and appreciate not just one building but also the community and how it has changed and grown. Learn the basics of house and real property research in this presentation

About our speaker: Midori Okazaki is the branch archivist at the Puget Sound Regional Branch of the Washington State Archives. The branch holds local government records from King, Kitsap and Pierce County. Midori oversees archival processing and reference operations. She has worked for the Washington State Archives since 2005 and was previously a contract archivist for University of Washington Libraries working on private manuscript collections. Born in Brooklyn, NY, and raised in Minnesota, she has lived in the Seattle area since 1986.
